☒ FOIA and Privacy Act Exemption List

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matter that are:

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices any agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions;
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

- (d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of civil action or proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) material is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process;

CASE SUMMARY

On 4/27/11, fifty (50) members of "Make the Road" began a demonstration across the street from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, NY during a POTUS Barack Obama visit b6, b7C. The group protested the Obama Administration's immigration policy and the deportation of illegal immigrants. All members of the group wore the organization's t-shirts and yelled "Keep your promise!" as the motorcade passed. No protectee movements were altered and the demonstration concluded later that day without incident.

CASE SUMMARY

On 04-27-11, four individuals from the group "Act Up" were escorted out of a POTUS Barack Obama event at Town Hall Theatre, New York, NY (674-0124862). As POTUS delivered his speech, b6, b7C and b6, b7C left their seats near the 2nd floor balcony and displayed an orange and blue cloth banner, approximately 10'X4', which stated, "6 Million on AIDS Meds by 2013." They began chanting and were subsequently escorted out of the event by the New York Police Department (NYPD). After b6 and b6, b7C were escorted out of the event, b6, b7C and b6, b7C b7C) stood up and continued to disrupt the event. They were also escorted out of the event by NYPD.

b6, b7C and admitted she hid the banner inside her bag. She stated she attended the event with the sole purpose of bringing attention to the May 2011 International AIDS Summit at the United Nations Complex. She was upset that POTUS was not scheduled to attend the summit, but instead sent a representative from his administration. She was able to enter the event after she received two tickets for a $250 donation.

b6, b7C She stated she also came to the event with the sole intention of bringing attention to the International AIDS Summit. She entered the event with a ticket given to her by b6, b7C provided agents with flyer which asked members of Act Up to protest POTUS events.

b6, b7C were initially denied entry to the event because they produced press badges, but were not on the list of press allowed into the event. It was unclear if the badges were real or fraudulent. They spoke to event staff and provided them with an email (which was addressed to b6, b7C which allegedly proved they should be allowed entry. A staff member allowed b6, b7C and b6, b7C access to the event, but as guests, not press.

b6, b7C He admitted he did not have a ticket to the event, but after persistent requests to staff, he was allowed inside. He claimed he previously visited POTUS Obama events in NYC metro area and had traveled the world for his AIDS activism. He provided agents with a press release which detailed this protest and provided further explanation of the group's ideas.

b6, b7C She stated she was the founder of the group "Queerocracy" which supported AIDS treatment.

Criminal charges were not pursued and all subjects departed the area without further incident.

No protectee movements were affected.

As POTUS delivered his speech, b6, b7c and b6, b7c left their seats near the 2nd floor balcony and displayed an orange and blue cloth banner, approximately 10'X4', which stated, "6 Million on AIDS Meds by 2013." They began chanting and were subsequently escorted out of the event by the New York Police Department (NYPD). After b6 and 1 b6, b7c were escorted out of the event, b6, b7c and b6, b7c b7c stood up and continued to disrupt the event. They were also escorted out of the event by NYPD.

b6, b7c were initially denied entry to the event because they produced press badges, but were not on the list of press allowed into the event. It was unclear if the badges were real or fraudulent. They spoke to event staff and provided them with an email (which was addressed to b6, b7c which allegedly proved they should be allowed entry. A staff member allowed b6, b7c and b6, b7c access to the event, but as guests, not press.

b6, b7c He admitted he did not have a ticket to the event, but after persistent requests to staff, he was allowed inside. He claimed he previously visited POTUS Obama events in NYC metro area and had traveled the world for his AIDS activism. He provided agents with a press release which detailed this protest and provided further explanation of the group's ideas.

Criminal charges were not pursued and all subjects departed the area without further incident.
